MARYLAND vs CORNELL FOR NCAA LACROSSE TITLE

AREA CODE (301)
864-4076 or 454-2123

COLLEGE PARK, MD.,- Bud Beardmore's University of Maryland Lacrosse team visits Providence, Rhode Island Saturday May 29 to meet Cornell for the NCAA Championship. Faceoff in Brown Stadium is set for 2:00 P.M.

The Terrapins, defending National Champions, are making their fourth appearance in the title game and fifth in the six years of the NCAA Tournament. Maryland also won the title in 1973.

Maryland gained the title game by beating Brown, the host team for the finals, 17-8 in the quarter final game at College Park and followed with a 22-11 semi-final win over Navy.

When the "Big Red Machine" from Maryland and Cornell's Big Red meet it will be the first time two undefeated teams have gained the title game. Maryland, 12-0 and Cornell, 15-0 are two of the highest scoring teams in Lacrosse.

While Cornell virtually breezed through the season the Terps demonstrated the ability to handle the pressure as the defending champions had to come from behind for a 12-10 overtime win over North Carolina and then topped Virginia 24-15 in overtime. Neither opponent got off a shot in the overtime sessions.

The Terps are led in scoring by Attackman Ed Mullen with 61 points, including 12 in the semi-final game against Navy. Frank Urso, a midfielder and the 1975 "Lacrosse Player of the Year" has 41 points. Attackmen Mike Hynes with 37 and Bert Caswell, 36, are followed closely in the scoring by Midfielder Roger Tuck with 35 points.

The Terrapin depth is indicated by the fact that 27 players have participated in the scoring and 25 have scored at least one goal.

Defenseman Mike Farrell is called by the Baltimore Sun "the best defenseman in collegiate Lacrosse, and Jake Reed has been outstanding in the goal for the Terps especially in the last four games of the season.

Bob Ott, running on the first midfield unit with Urso and Freshman Terry Kimball, has been outstanding as a faceoff man. Beardmore considers his first three midfield units as all capable of starting. Tuck, Bob Brenton and Freshman Lance Kohler are the second unit in with Bert Olsen, Lin Wellander and Jim Burnett following. Freshmen Barry Mitchell and Greg Rumpf have seen considerable action as a fourth unit with Junior Kevin Boland.

Mark Bethmann and George Miller start with Farrell on defense with Freshman Randy Ratliff and Junior Mark Tully providing excellent depth.

Now Urso and Roger Tuck, both seeing some action on attack have passed the Terp Coach.
